Summer Employment with CTY

The following positions are available in our day program. Visit our website to explore these and other opportunities.

Program Assistants are part camp counselor, part classroom aide. They lead dynamic activities including sports, arts and crafts, talent shows, and service projects. In the classroom, they collaborate with experienced teachers to create an ideal learning environment.

General Assistants are master organizers, savvy shoppers, and customer service minded. With flexibility and resourcefulness, they keep the site office running smoothly and fill in as needed in activities and classes.

Note: Employees must provide transportation to and from the site each day.
